

Sizwe Karabo Williams

Web and Mobile Application Developer

93 Ouklip Road
Roodepoort, Gauteng
South Africa
+27 84 409 4293
sizwewill@gmail.com

Summary

- Dedicated full stack web developer capable of using a wide range of technologies to solve real world problems by providing solutions that efficiently and effectively ease the process of achieving outlined goals.
- I have an expert level understanding and capability to implement object oriented concepts into applications with a codebase that has loosely coupled classes and components which can be easily understood and updated by other developers.
- I'm enthusiastic about working collaboratively on projects with other developers on tasks and reach project goals in an agile development approach.
- Highly proficient in both spoken and written English. very good command in Tswana, Zulu and Xhosa.

Education

West Ridge High School - National Senior Certificate

Graduated December 2010

Monash University - Bachelor of Computer and Information Science

Graduated January 2014

- Graduated with a double major which included application development and networks and business systems.
- Learned the fundamental skills to design algorithms and use data structures to create software that solves real world problems.

Employment History

Digital Leap - Junior Web Developer

January 2014 – September 2015

Responsibilities

- Server-side development with using Cakephp framework to program Web application with multiple and complex business rules and access control.
- Client-side development user interface design and styling with CSS preprocess and post processors ensuring cross browser compatibility along with adding client side scripting with JavaScript for adding front end behaviour.
- Maintained and updated WordPress CMS based Websites and theme integration.

Assemble - Web And Mobile Application Developer

September 2015 – Present

Responsibilities

- Programming web and mobile applications with web technologies that have been identified as the most suitable for a project and providing the most effective and efficient solutions to a clients project needs.
- Working with a team of developers using version control software to reach a common set of goals and achieving a projects defined success parameters.
- Offering guidance and direction to junior developers on projects and overall coding guidelines to produce, effective and working applications.
- Analysing and providing solutions to real world process and client needs with web and applications.
- Working alongside our project manager in extrapolating all the tasks and use cases that need to be tackled in order to produce a product that can be defined as successful.

Professional skills

PHP

- Laravel PHP Framework: Expert
- Yii PHP Framework: Expert
- Cake PHP Framework: Expert

Javascript

- AngularJS: Expert
- Angular: Intermediate
- JQuery: Expert

Frontend Development

- CSS: Expert
- SASS: Expert

Other

- GIT: Intermediate
- Webpack: Intermediate

Hobbies & Interests

- Going on hikes, and looking at instagram worthy views.
- Watching and quoting stand up comedy.
- Movie enthusiast.
- Occasionally reading self help and non-fiction books.

References

Matthew Hodge - Senior Developer

Flicker Leap

+27 78 126 4426

matthew@digitalleap.co.za

Freddie Cronje - Project manager

Assemble Online

+27 83 631 3602

freddie@assemble.co.za