

DANIEL DUFFY

Mooretown, Ratoath, Co. Meath, A85 H317, Ireland • Home: 353852389519 • danielalanduffy@gmail.com

Professional Summary

Hardworking Automotive Technician with 6 years of experience in the field. Positive and upbeat individual with enthusiasm for the work and an understanding of good customer service. Motivated to go above and beyond job requirements to satisfy customer needs, help the team and meet business objectives.

Skills

- Brake systems understanding
- Strong mechanical aptitude
- Diagnosis and repair
- Strong mechanical skills
- Friendly people person
- Small engine mechanics
- Electrical experience
- Analytical ability
- Preventative maintenance
- Clean driving record

Work History

Automotive Technician, 09/2012 to Current

The Garage Dunboyne – Dunboyne, County Meath

- Rebuild and repair engines
- Servicing brakes and fuel systems
- Install timing gears & timing belts
- Order parts and supplies in order to carry out repair work
- Organise work records and file reports
- Communicate with customers regarding vehicle issues and potential repairs.
- Carry out all phases of power system tear down and repair
- Remove & replace tires, shocks, struts and brakes.
- Repair and install radiators and water pumps.
- Examine vehicles to determine the extent of damage or malfunctions
- Repair or install new belts, hoses & steering systems
- Carry out Pre-NCT tests on vehicles (National Car Test)
- Contribute to repeat and referral business by using strong customer service and problem solving skills

Education

Leaving Certificate: Leaving Certificate, 2012

Dunshaughlin Community College - Dunshaughlin, County Meath

Automotive Technician: Motor Mechanics, 2017

LMETB - Louth & Meath Education & Training Board - Dundalk, County Louth

Accomplishments

Automotive Technician Qualification

After 4 years of hard work, I completed my studies and obtained my certificate of qualification in Automotive Mechanics.

LCA Student of the Year Award

I was nominated by my peers to receive this award and was presented with the award in 2012 when I graduated from Secondary school.

Student Highest Achiever Award - Leinster, Ireland

This award is presented to the student with the highest results in your Leaving Certificate and I was very proud to receive this award in 2012.